Northwestern Books on Africa

Urban Revolt in South Africa, 1960-1964

A Case Study

Edward Feit. Based on verbatim records of the trials of African insurgents, this study deals with the early stages of urban revolt and concentrates not on the leaders of the movement but on the rank and file. $10.75

Jamaa

A Charismatic Movement in Katanga

Johannes Fabian. As the author disentangles this Katanga religious movement from its complex historical, social, and economic environment, he reveals the limits of traditional approaches and the importance of a language-centered view of social reality. $10.50

Languages and Language in Black Africa

Pierre Alexandre. Translated by F. A. Leary. This is the first over-all analysis of the linguistic situation in Black Africa and its effects on the political, social, and cultural development of independent states. $6.00

The African Presence in Asia

Consequences of the East African Slave Trade

Joseph E. Harris. In this pioneer study, the author examines the East African slave trade, which was carried on for centuries, and the resultant emergence of communities of African descent in Asia, primarily in India. $6.00

Southern Nilotic History

Linguistic Approaches to the Study of the Past

Christopher Ehret. Southern Nilotic history lacks documents and historical traditions for all but the most recent centuries. The author uses the analysis of linguistic evidence to provide a basic historical framework. $10.50

Essays on Music and History in Africa

Edited by Klaus P. Wachsmann

Explorations of the ways in which music and history can mutually define and illuminate each other, the twelve essays in this volume range in topic from the history of African music to the application of musicological data in historical and archaeological research. $9.50
